

January 29, 2010

A technique that uses sound waves to measure the depth of the ocean floor is called
_____.

Example 3

SONAR to Measure Distance

- Ocean Depth

Blast from the Disaster Follow Me

Past

Disaster

January 21, 2010

Which of the follow statements best describes the process of condensation?

- A) Water vapor loses energy as it rises and cools off, then joins other water molecules to create a cloud*
- B) Water vapor reaches a cloud, then loses energy and becomes a liquid.*
- C) Water vapor gains energy and moves upward into a cloud.*
- D) Water vapor gains energy and moves upward into the air in an invisible form.*